NEGRO CONFIDENCE MAN.

A negro, named John Osborn, was arested by the Second District police last vening for appropriating a trunk and come money belonging to another negro parted Peter Wesley. The circum-tances go to prove that the negro is succeptible of a very high degree of eduation and cultivation in matters of devtry and rascality, if in nothing else Peter's own account is, that he was about return to his home in Sardis, but ar rived at the depot too late for the train. While hesitating whether to bring his trunk back to his stopping place or leave shu Osborn-came up and informed Peter that he too was going on the train and they would go together. He, however, would first have to go to claim agency of Moyer & Ded-rick and draw his money, some our hundred dollars, after which they ould have a nice time. Peter suspected othing, and leaving his trunk at the epot, accompanied his new found riend to the claim agency. When there, Osborn went up stairs alone, but soon returned to Peter, whom he left standing n the street; and told him that be must lave five dollars to get his check with. Peter shelled out the money, and Osorn, after going up stairs and remainng a few minutes, returned, and told Stopping in front of a house on Main street, he asked Peter to wait for him while he went in to tell his aunt "good Peter waited for some minutes, ut John did not come; and he at last egan to "smell a mice." It suddenly awned on him that he had been swinled, and the thought struck him that Osborn would go to the depot and steal it trunk also, and he put for the depot as fast as his legs could carry him to save it. "Sure enough," his suspicious proved true, and when near the station he met a carriage with his trunk on the driver's seat, and his false friend inside.

"Those enrolling in East Tenne see will be transported to Nashville and armed, and placed under command of Gen. James A. Cooper.

"Another prociamation will be duly issued designating the counties in which I shall declare martial law, the effect of river's sent, and his false friend inside. Isiling the driver, he ordered him "to top right dar," and as he did so Osborn amped out and ran off, Peter following and shouting "stop this?" Afteran exiting chase the fugitive was caught and odged in the Second District station. Peter got most of his money and his trunk, and went on his way home a

To educate—in the true sense of the word—to educate thoroughly the young indies of the South, is its stim. The de-partments of Mathematics, Physical and Moral Sciences, Literature, Auctent and Modern Lan-guages, Music, Drawing, etc., are ably filled by accomplished teachers, male and female. Special care—it may be said, uncommon care is taken not only to thoroughly educate in the Arts and Sciences, but to render the pupils contented and happy, to train their moral sontiments, to cultivate correct tastes, to pre-serve their health, and to throw around them proper restraints. In short, to afford to patrons one of the very best regulated Institutions in the land.

one of the very best regulated institutions in the land.

APPARATUS.—Arrangements have been made to supply the College with suitable Apparatus surfacient to illustrate the Sciences, and to give a practical knowledge of them. In addition, the classes in Chemistry, Astronomy and Natural Philosophy, through the courtesy of the officers of the State University, will have access to its large and well appointed Chemical and Philosophical Apparatus, excelled by none in the Scotth, and to be favored with lectures and experimental illustrations by Drs. Garland and Hilgard, the learned Professors in these Departments. ariments. UILDING—LOCATION.—The building, esti-ted to be worth $40,000, is commodious, comrtable and retired.
